2. Modal 'can' for abilities: Use 'can' to talk about abilities and possibilities. It doesn't change form.
3. Adjectives before nouns: Put describing words before the noun they describe. Use 'very' for emphasis.
4. Past simple for stories: Use past simple for completed actions in stories. Regular verbs add -ed.
5. Question formation with 'can': Put 'can' before the subject to make questions. No 'do' needed.
