

English Talkies

Grammar Quiz Guide

Language: English | Level: B1

Complete guide to essential grammar topics for intermediate learners. Practice exercises and clear explanations included.

Essential Vocabulary

| Word            | Definition                        | Example                                 |
|-----------------|-----------------------------------|---|
| quiz            | A short test of knowledge         | Take this grammar quiz to test yourself |
| skills          | Abilities you have learned        | Practice improves your English skills   |
| grammar         | Rules of language structure       | Good grammar makes you sound fluent     |
| tense           | Time form of verbs                | Past tense shows completed actions      |
| present perfect | Tense connecting past and present | I have lived here for five years        |
| past simple     | Tense for completed past actions  | I went to school yesterday              |
| article         | Words like 'a', 'an', 'the'       | Use 'the' before specific nouns         |
| preposition     | Words showing position or time    | Put the book on the table               |
| conditional     | Sentences with 'if' clauses       | If it rains, I'll stay home             |
| modal verb      | Verbs like can, should, must      | You should study more English           |
| passive voice   | When subject receives action      | The cake was made by Mary               |
| comparative     | Form comparing two things         | This book is better than that one       |
| superlative     | Form showing the most/least       | This is the best restaurant in town     |
| gerund          | Verb form ending in -ing          | I enjoy reading books                   |
| infinitive      | Base form with 'to'               | I want to learn English                 |

Key Phrases

present perfect tense → present perfect tense | past simple tense → past simple tense | definite article → definite article | indefinite article → indefinite article | first conditional → first conditional | modal verbs → modal verbs

Grammar Rules

1. Present Perfect Formation: Form with have/has + past participle. Shows connection between past and present.
2. Article Usage Rules: Use 'a/an' for general, 'the' for specific. No article for general plurals.
3. Preposition Time Rules: At + specific times, On + days/dates, In + months/years/periods. Fixed combinations.
4. First Conditional Structure: If + present simple, will + infinitive. For real future possibilities.
5. Modal Verb Usage: Can (ability), should (advice), must (obligation). Follow with base infinitive without 'to'.
6. Comparative and Superlative: Add -er/-est for short adjectives, more/most for long ones. Than with comparatives.

Study Tips

1. Practice grammar in context, not isolation | 2. Review mistakes immediately after quizzes | 3. Focus on one grammar point per study session